

Health Care Executive and Physician Compensation Seminar

October 27–28, 2014
191 N. Wacker Drive, Suite 3700
Chicago, IL 60606-1698

How Do Your Organization's Executive and Physician Compensation Packages Measure Up?

Many factors, including the possibility of declining revenues and greater scrutiny of executive and physician compensation, are forcing board members and executives to reevaluate their compensation programs to attract and retain talent that can navigate the rapidly changing landscape:

- Consolidation and greater integration are changing how health care organizations reward their executives.
- Accountable Care Organizations have created executive and physician leadership positions that did not exist a few years ago.
- Employment of physicians is raising new governance issues for many health care organizations.

This Seminar Will Provide:

- An introduction to total compensation for executives and employed physicians, including the rules and regulations governing executive and physician compensation.
- An overview of the latest trends in health care compensation and the opportunity to discuss what organizations need to do to proactively address today's issues.
- Practical insights into the changes to physician compensation in the era of health care reform.
- Best practices in governance and public relations strategies.
- An opportunity to network with other board members and senior executives.

- Dave Hesselink, Principal
Dave Hesselink joined SullivanCotter with over 20 years of health care leadership experience in chief financial officer and chief executive officer roles, most recently with Centura Health Physician Group in Colorado. Drawing from his diverse background, Dave brings a wealth of expertise in the areas of physician compensation and benefits plan design and implementation, physician contracting, compliance, financial reporting, and revenue cycle management.
- Michael D. Rosenbaum, Partner
Michael is a Partner in Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP's Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Practice. His practice includes a full range of employee benefits and executive/physician compensation matters. He has extensive experience in designing, implementing, and funding executive and physician compensation plans. Michael also advises clients on other employee benefits arrangements available to executives and physicians of tax-exempt organizations.
- David L. Wolfe, Partner
David is a Partner in Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP's Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Practice. He engages in a broad-based practice for tax-exempt clients covering tax-qualified plans and executive/physician compensation. His subspecialties include reducing ERISA litigation and fiduciary liability exposure, hybrid pension arrangements, legal compliance reviews and the corporate governance of benefits plans.
- John J. D'Andrea, Partner
John is a Partner at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP and Vice-Chair of the firm's Health Care Practice Group. He counsels clients on health care transactional and regulatory matters, including mergers and acquisitions, managed care contracting and network development, Stark Law and Anti-Kickback Statute analysis, and compliance program and regulatory due diligence reviews.

This seminar presents an overview of executive and physician compensation. SullivanCotter also conducts a detailed physician compensation training seminar for professionals who design and administer physician compensation programs. Please see www.SullivanCotter.com for the next physician compensation training seminar.
